ICAN has followed a magnificent trajectory. Inspiring as the Institute has attained, much is still needed to sustain it especially in the face of a New World Order.

To this end, I will make the Institute attain more visibility in view of the competition occasioned by the reality of an inclusive world.

I will move motion on policies and programs that will make the Institute more attractive to the female folk, and make sure that its certificate enjoys a pride of place in government service.

My goal will be to ensure that the Institute is not only a foremost professional body, but to also put it very much ahead of others for all times with the additional investment made on ICT to give members an exceptional service experience to become part of the global highway of corporate engagements

In doing this, I will encourage a kind of mentorship that will make the next generation of our members worthy heirs to the ideals of the Institute through placement/attachment to existing firms, organizations etc.

I shall promote sublime professionalism that will elevate public and corporate finances by bridging communication gap between members and the institute

Integrity and accuracy remain my watchwords
